Shabbos is coming!!!

Shabbos is coming, we're so happy,
We're gonna sing and shout out loud!
Six days a week we wait for Shabbos,
A gift from Hashem
And we're so proud!

So let's sing together - Shabbos!
Whisper together- Shabbos!
Let's shout together- SHABBOS!
Tell it to the world- Shabbos!

Shabbos is coming,
Let's light the candles,
Let's gut the Kiddush cup and the wine.
Let's set the table, everyone is helping,
To welcome the Shabbos right on time!

So let's sing together - Shabbos!
Whisper together- Shabbos!
Let's shout together- SHABBOS!
Tell it to the world- Shabbos!

Shabbos is very, very nice.
Shabbos is very, very nice.
That's why I say it to you twice (Hahaha).
Shabbos is very, very nice.

And that makes three,
One, two, three,
sing with me!

S-H-A-BB-O
S-H-A-BB-O
S-H-A-BB-O-S!!!

*Rushing, cooking,
Cleaning the house,
Shabbos is coming,
The oven's going, overflowing.*

*Rushing, cooking,
Cleaning the house,
I must be sure, be home by four,
I'll wash the floor a little more.*

*Only twenty minutes,
Oy yoy yoy yoy!
I still must take a shower,
Oy yoy yoy yoy!
I wish I had at least another hour,
Oy yoy yoy yoy!*

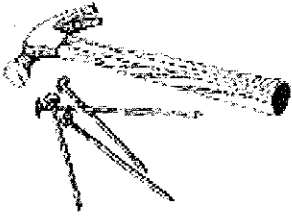

*Shabbos is the day of rest
From all the days it's the best,
But Friday afternoon is when
I'm really put to the test*

*Only twenty minutes,
Oy yoy yoy yoy!
I still must take a shower,
Oy yoy yoy yoy!
I wish I had at least another hour,
Oy yoy yoy yoy yoy...*

The Sun Is Going Down

The sun is going down, it's shining through the trees,
Another week's gone by, become a memory.
So throw away your hammer, there's nothing left to do,
Just go on home and find the gift, it's waiting there for you.

Oh, it's time to say "Good Shabbos,"
'Cause all your work is done.
Gonna spend the day together with the Holy One.
Say a special blessing on a cup that's filled with wine.
Man and his Creator, it's a very special sign.

Your candles will be burning, they'll fill your home with light,
Singing songs of Shabbos well into night.
So throw away your hammer, there's nothing left to do,
Just go on home and find the gift, it's waiting there for you.

Oh, it's time to say "Good Shabbos,"
'Cause all your work is done.
Gonna spend the day together with the Holy One.
Say a special blessing on a cup that's filled with wine.
Man and his Creator, it's a very special sign.

You can spend time with your family, you'll learn and you will pray,
Why not wait 'til after Shabbos? Oh, those nails won't run away!
So throw away your hammer, there's nothing left to do,
Just go on home and find the gift, it's waiting there for you.

Oh, it's time to say "Good Shabbos,"
'Cause all your work is done.
Gonna spend the day together with the Holy One.
Say a special blessing on a cup that's filled with wine.
Man and his Creator, it's a very special sign.

Shabbos Puts Us On The Top Of The World

*Look beyond the mountains and the trees,
As the week is carried off into the breeze.
Not a trace is left behind,
As the heavens open wide,
Making way for our Shabbos bride.*

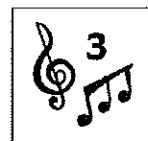

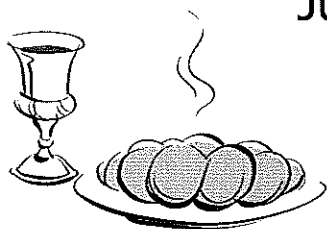

*Oh, oh, oh, Shabbos for our nation,
And we've kept it since creation,
And the very explanation that we find,
Ba'ah Shabbos, Ba'ah Menucha,
As it fills us with kedusha,
Shabbos puts us on the top of the world.*

*There is only one wish on my mind,
That next week when we will greet the Shabbos bride,
There'll be a million candles more,
As the world knew once before,
And that light will lead us to Mashiach's door
Oh, oh, oh...*

Just one Shabbos

Just one Shabbos and we'll all be free,
Just one Shabbos, come and join with me,
We'll sing and dance to the sky,
With our spirits so high,
We will show them all it's true,
Let them come and join us too!

The Shabbos Queen

*I used to think my mother was the Shabbos Queen,
She stands so regally with royal grace.
And whispers to the King of the universe Hashem,
In a very sheltered place, behind her covered face.*

*I know that she's not asking Him for diamonds,
My noble mother doesn't ask for gold,
She's asking Him to help me study all the Torah's ways,
And to let her eyes behold that joy as she grows old.*

Chorus:

*Oh, oh, when I grow up, no matter what life brings,
Hashem will give me the strength I need to handle it.
And I will walk by the light of a thousand Friday nights,
And the tefillos of my mother who always had her candles lit.*

*My mother turns our home into a palace,
Her wisdom and her warmth both make it so.
She lights her candles and I can hear her tender feelings speak,
Without any voice or words, but the kiss on my cheek.*

*The Shabbos candles light is gentle and so soft,
It smooths away her forehead's every crease.
And suddenly the troubles of the past week disappear,
And all our fears and worries cease, in this moment of peace.*

Chorus

*I think of how it hurts my mother when I'm doing wrong,
When I do not let my good side show.
But this week I decide that I will make my mother proud,
Because how else will she know that I love her so.*

*Each mitzvah I will do will be a diamond,
Each smile of mine will be a precious stone,
To put into the crown she seems to wear on Friday nights,
And when I am fully grown I'll wear a crown of my own*

Chorus

Forever One

Look inside to the heart of a Jew,
Open up its many doors.
And the soul that you'll see there inside,
Is a reflection of yours.
For each soul is a part of one whole,
That joins us to each other.
We are all part of one another,
And we have always been one.

Chorus:

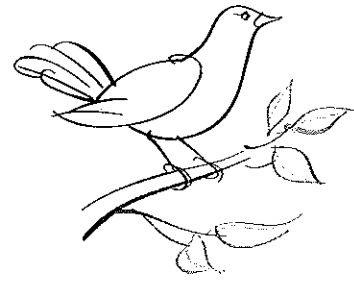

Forever one, we will go far,
It's not "I am" but who we are.
We need just to reveal it,
We need to try and feel it.
And never are we alone,
We have each other as our own.
And nothing can divide us,
For we are forever one.

We are one since way back in time,
Unified at our start.
We began as a nation to live,
And believe with one heart.
You and I, we were all gathered there,
As one we said we'll do and hear.
We were born to belong together,
And we'll forever be one.

Chorus

There are times when we might drift
apart,
And go our own separate ways.
But the spark from above that we share,
Is alive and ablaze.
Soon Mashiach will gather each spark,
And shine away the darkness.
He will gather us all together,
And we'll forever be one.

Chorus

A Little Bird Is Calling

A little bird is calling,
Its wishes to return.
The little bird is wounded,
It cannot fly but yearns.

It's captured by the vulture,
And crying bitterly.
Oh, to see my next again,
Oh, to be with thee.

The little bird of silver,
So delicate and rare,
Still chirps among the vultures,
And outshines all that's there.

How long, how long, it suffers.
How long will it be?
When will come the eagle,
And set the little bird free.

The little bird is our nation,
The vultures are our foes.
From G-d we have been taken,
This we all see and know.

The nest is Yerushalayim,
Where we long to be once more.
The eagle is Mashiach,
Whom we are waiting for.

The whole entire world is a very narrow bridge.
And the main thing to recall is to have no fear at all.

Behold there are days that are at hand,
When a hunger I will send throughout the land.
It's not food that we will want,
It's not water that we'll need,
Just the words of Torah to our souls we will feed.

Our lives are enriched by this precious tree, this tree of life for eternity.
Those who will keep it consistently, praised they surely will be.
Its ways are pleasant and just, for those who in G-d place their trust,
Walking its pathways will lead to kindness and peace.

Be Proud

Listen well as I tell you a story,
Of a chain that is longer than long.
Every bead on this strand
Is strung by his hand.
That is why our chain is so strong.

You and I are the beads that are glowing.
Yes, together we are linked arm in arm.
And the closer we stand,
The more we feel His hand,
As He protects us from evil and harm.

Be proud that you're a Jew.
The world looks up to you,
For your courage and your faith,
As you withstand every storm.
A strand is but a string,
But remember just one thing,
Precious jewels strung together
Will not sever.

For generations our nation has survived,
With the Torah to keep us alive.
And as long as we live, our utmost
we give,
To serve Hashem with pride.

Be proud that you're a Jew.
The world looks up to you.
Let's repeat it, so we mean it.
I am proud, I am proud, I am proud.

I am a Jew

I am a Jew, it's my identity
My name, my soul, my life.
I want Mashiach today,
Yerushalayim our home once again.

The yellow star I will wear with pride.
We're captives, yet we're free.
But if you open you hearts,
Hakadosh Baruch Hu will be there for you

Our King

Far from home, so cold and alone.
Feeling forgotten, knowing I was wrong.
Siddur held tight,
tears falling through the night.
Why have I grown apart from you,
Return my heart to you,
Selach Lanu!

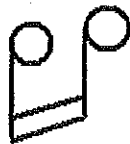

No our king, he's not so far,
He's crying when you are.
Speak the words, feel the pain,
I'll never be the same.

And the door is always open
For a Jew that's coming home.
Ki Karov Aylecha
Hadavar Me'od.

Yisroel Yisroel <sup>1</sup> Mama Rochel <sup>2</sup>

Yisroel, Yisroel, where have
You been all these years?
I've been awaiting your return,
Come on home, let me dry off your tears.

I recall as a young bride,
How you were faithful and true,
But since then you've wandered to strangers,
Who try to make a traitor of you.

Don't you be fooled by their lies,
Their only aim is to lure you away from me.
Won't you believe that it's true,
I'm the only one for you.

How long? 'Til when?
Will you endure all their scorn,
Though you've been beaten by wind and rain,
You still are a rose among thorns.

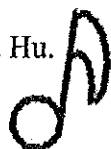

Battered crown, tattered gown,
Your garments are covered in mud,
Still you continue to wander,
Though the earth has been soaked with your blood.

What are you hoping to find?
Haven't I given you all you could wish for?
Come back and we'll start anew,
I'll be here waiting for you.

Oh, to behold your countenance,
Let the sound of your voice fill my palace,
Only then, my dear one,
Will you experience true happiness.

Tell me it's only a dream,
Tell me that your heart and
Your soul are still here with me
Wake up and we'll be together,
Yisrael, V'Kudsha Brich Hu, Chad Hu.

*With the rising sun on her wedding day,
She raised her eyes to the heavens.
And she thanked Hashem for the man of truth
With whom she would build a nation.*

*But as nightfall came, destiny betrayed,
The veil concealing another.
Yet a sister's shame, not her shattered dreams,
Took hold of her heart and her sense.*

*Mama Rochel, cry for us again,
Won't you shed a tear for your dear children,
If you raise your sweet voice once again
The day will come!*

*Mama Rochel's lessons linger on,
We teach them to our daughters and our sons,
In her merit please return us to Jerusalem.*

*In a roadside grave she was laid to rest,
In solitude, forever.
But her voice gave hope to the broken hearts
Of her daughters and sons bound for exile.*

*When her plaintiff cry gained Divine consent,
A challenge to her maker.
Can the mercy of mere flesh and blood
Run deeper than yours, our Creator.*

Chorus

*Now your voice is still as you heed the call
Of "Meenee kolaych mee-bechy."
It's our Father's will, He who made us all,
Dare we ask of you to defy him.*

*Yet the frightened child,
Numb from pain and grief,
Remains forlorn and uncertain.
Clinging to the faith that it can be heard,
As it cries out to its mother.*

Speak to Hashem, He does hear you.
Pour out your heart, He will guide you.
Your every tear, joins the thousands, the millions that fall.
You're the child of Hashem, He listens to us all.

Each time that you open your siddur,
Each time that you pour out your heart to Him,
He listens, He cares, and He keeps every tear,
'Til Mashiach will arrive and all our worries disappear.

*I am an ancient wall of stone atop a hill so high.
And if you listen with your heart, you just may hear my cry.
Where has the Bais HaMikdash gone, I stand here all alone.
How long am I to wait for all my children to come home.*

*A house of marble and of gold once stood here by my side.
From far and wide all came to see its beauty and its pride.
But pointless hatred brought it down and with it so much pain.
Now only loving every Jew can build it once again.*

*Together, together, we stood by Har Sinai my daughters and sons.
Together, forever, we must stand together forever as one.*

*You come and stand beside my stones to raise your voice in prayer.
You ask, when will this exile end, how much more can we bear?
But pointless hatred still lives on, it lingers in your hearts.
How can you come back home to me, while you remain apart.*

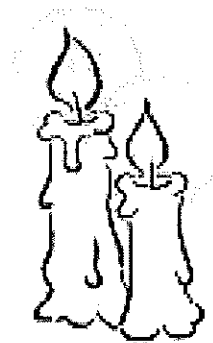

*Together, together, we stood by Har Sinai my daughters and sons.
Together, forever, we must stand together forever as one.*

Lift up your candle, how bright its light will shine.
The fire deep inside you has power so divine.
The neshama is your guide, for the Torah's light that's true,
One light can make a difference, it's up to you.

Lift up your candle, turn darkness into day.
With just one single mitzvah, a judgement can be swayed.
And though we know it's hard, we all fall now and then,
Lift up your candle once again.

Shema Yisrael

He raised his hand to wave goodbye
Saw the pain in mother's eyes
Who left her little precious boy of four.

In a citadel of ashen stone
That preached a faith unlike his own
Perhaps he may just yet survive this war.

In the shadows stood a man in black.
"My child," he said, "you must not look back."

Yet one image lingered, the tears on her face
And mother's words from their last embrace.

Shema, Shema Yisrael
Know that there is but one G-d above
When you feel pain, when you rejoice
Know how He longs to hear your voice
Hashem Elokeinu, Hashem Echad.

Deep within the iron gate,
Far from the stench of war and hate,
He knew not of a world gone insane.
You must believe us, he was told,
Our faith alone can save your soul,
Please let us heal your wounds
And ease your pain.

Ani ma'amin be'emunah shelayma
Biveeyas haMashiach
Ve'af al pi she'yismamaya
Eem kol zeh achakeh lo
Bichol yom sheyavo

He tried not to forget his past, his home
But he was so very young and all alone.
While visions of his shtetl, once vivid and clear
Began to fade, and all but disappeared.

Shema, Shema Yisrael
Know that there is but one G-d above
When you feel pain, when you rejoice
Know how He longs to hear your voice
Hashem Elokeinu, Hashem Echad.

The winds of war had finally passed,
And one man took on a sacred task
To bring the scattered Jewish children home.
He traveled far, from place to place,
A quest to reignite the faith
Of those sent into hiding long ago.

He entered the fortress grey and cold.
"Your kind is not among us," he was told
"Hashem above," he whispered,
"Please don't let me fail!"
As he began to sing Shema Yisrael.

Shema, Shema Yisrael
Know that there is but one G-d above
When you feel pain, when you rejoice
Know how He longs to hear your voice
Hashem Elokeinu, Hashem Echad.

אני מאמין באמונה שלמה
בביאת המשיח
ואף אל פי שיתמהמה
עם כל זה אחכה לו
בכל יום שיבוא

I believe that Mashiach is coming,
Even though it may take long,
To bring us back to Eretz Yisrael,
The land where we belong.

Who I Am

Do I know who I am?
How my story began?
Can I see what lies behind the veil?
Can I discern my trail?

What is the root of my soul?
Am I to play a certain role?
Do my choices have more meaning than I know?
Is there a plan to help me grow?

Were I to meet my soul face to face,
All my questions would disappear without a trace.

Every incident another test
Designed to squeeze from me my very best.

My soul is a unique entity
With situations made for it specifically.
Now I understand why I am me
My strengths and qualities as they should be.

Although at times I feel the chips are down
Now I have the strength to come around.
My Father's here, oh, He'll guide me lovingly,
I'll do my best 'cuz he believes in me.

Chorus

Higher and Higher

When I was just a small boy,
I heard the legend of the dove.
Like all the other animals,
Hashem created it with love.
But the dove was extra special,
For it was so pure and white.
Hashem sent it to the forest,
To turn the darkness into light.

But all the animals were jealous,
And their hatred grew so strong.
They plotted ways to rid themselves
Of the dove and his sweet songs.
First the tiger, then the jaguar,
Then the bear and then the snake.
When they'd attack, the dove would run,
And the dove barely escaped.

So the dove turned to Hashem,
Tears streaming down his cheeks.
"I feel that I am all alone,
With no one close to me."
But then from under Hashem's throne,
Where He stores His special things,
He gave the dove a special gift,
He gave the dove his wings.

And he soared higher and higher,
Higher than the sky.
Higher and higher,
That's as high as you can fly.
You'll fly up to the heavens,
Even higher than you dreamed.
Higher and higher,
You'll fly so close to me.

The dove went to the forest,
With confidence and pride.
He'd never have to run again,
And he'd never have to hide.
He would always be protected,
And now that he had wings,
He would sit up in the treetops,
And the world would hear him sing.

But all the animals were furious,
When they saw the dove's new wings.
It was as if Hashem was telling them,
That the dove would be their king.
So they pounced upon the dove,
And he could barely fly.
They left him torn and wounded,
They left him there to die.

So the dove turned to Hashem,
And he cried, "It isn't fair.
These precious wings you gave to me,
That I always have to wear.
They are so very heavy,
Much more than I can bear.
Please take me from the forest,
I cannot make it there."

And then Hashem turned to the dove,
"My child, please understand.
Now I have given you your wings,
Your destiny is in your hands.
If you use your wings for flying,
They'll never weigh you down.
And you'll fly up so much higher,
Than those who live upon the ground.

And you'll grow higher and higher...

The dove returned back to the forest,
And now the others lay and wait.
They'd attack the dove in unison,
And this time death would be his fate.
But the dove was so determined,
And he began to fly.
And like Hashem had promised him,
He soared up towards the sky.

And he went higher and higher...

Our story has concluded,
But friends, there's one more thing.
The little dove, that's you and me,
And the Torah, that's our wings.

And we'll go higher and higher...

① Someday

They learned in a dark, frigid cellar.
Alone, just a small group of men.
When in rushed a soldier,
And led them all away.
The flame of Torah flickered on that day.

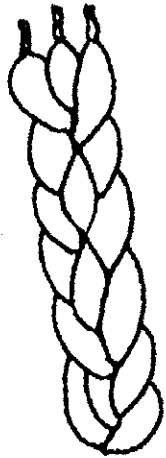

So many tears, so much sorrow.
The pain has lasted thousands of years.
But soon we'll stop crying,
The cruelty will end.
The Melech Hamashiach will be sent.

Someday we will all be together.
Someday we'll be sheltered and warm.
Never will we have to express any fears.
Our scars and our wounds will disappear.
Avraham and Yitzchak will be there to greet us.
Yaakov and his sons will stand by and smile.
Moshie Rabbeinu will lead us once again,
In Yerushalayim, Be'ezras Hashem.

We learn every day and we daven.
We ask Hashem, please bring those old times back,
I know that He's listening,
He always does, its true.
For I've received a promise and so have you.

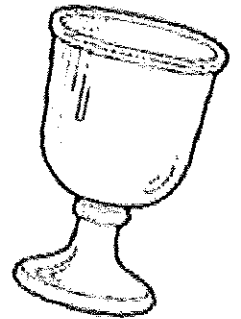

That Hashem will lead us out of this exile.
It won't be too much longer, I know.
And then together we will daven,
Together we'll all sing.
To praise and thank Hashem for everything.

Shabbos is going away

Shabbos is going away.
The sky's getting dark,
It's the end of the day.
Oh, Shabbos, you really should know.
We're sorry to see you go.

But you will come back next week we know.
You will come back, 'cuz we love you so.
So let us thank Hashem who will bring Shabbos back again!

I'M A JEW

Walking down the street outside
Knowing who I am inside
Let it be known to the world
That I am a Jew.

I'm a Jew, I'm a Jew,
And I'm proud to be one, too,
I'm a Jew, I'm a Jew, I'm a Jew.

I'm a Jew, I'm a Jew,
And I'm proud to be one, too,
I'm a Jew, I'm a Jew, and so are you!

Oooh oooh oooh NAGEELA!
Oooh oooh oooh NAGEELA!
Oooh oooh oooh JEW JEW JEW!
Oooh oooh oooh YOU ARE TOO!
Oooh oooh oooh NAGEELA!

① *Our life is like a road that's full of bumps and curves,
We never know which way we'll have to swerve.
We try to hang on as we hit the bumps and curves,
As we look for things to help us calm our nerves.*

*But if we trust in our Creator, our father,
And concentrate on all the things we should,
If we trust in our Creator, our father,
We'll go much farther than we thought we could.*

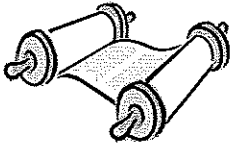

② *I know a boy named Binyomin who thought he couldn't win,
He always dreamed that one day he would be a champion.*

*To Binyomin I'd say, I'd say, to Binyomin I'd say,
If ya did, ya did, ya did a mitzvah, you would be okay!*

*Now Binyomin learns the Torah,
He knows the proper way so everybody say,
"Ya did, ya did, ya did a mitzvah, a mitzvah today!"*

③ *I am, I am, I am, I am a servant of Hashem, I am!
I'm proud... I'm proud to be a servant of Hashem, I'm proud!
I love, I love, I love, I love to be a servant of Hashem, I love!
I'll always, always be, I'll always be a servant of Hashem, I'll be!*

HOW CAN I KNOW?

I hear a voice that's
Loud and clear,
Saying that I should be good.
I hear a voice that's
Loud and clear,
And what is good is understood.

I hear a voice that's
Loud and clear,
Saying that I should be good.
And what is good is understood.

How can I know which way is good?

Ooh Wah Ooh Wah Ooh Way Hey!

Is it what they show in Hollywood?

No No No No No No Way!

Can I learn it from the neighborhood?

No No No No No No Way!

From the Torah it is understood!

Hashem Echad

Badam bum badam HASHEM
Badam bum badam IS ONE
Badam bum badam HASHEM
Badam bum badam IS ONE

You think it's because of your brain,
The people you know or your fortune or fame.
But on all these things we cannot rely,
They come and they go, they live and they die.

Yes, it's time for us to learn,
He's ONE ONE ONE!
And where else can we turn
But ONE ONE ONE!

And however my life may unfold,
It's up to my Master, it's all in His control!

I know it will be, just you wait and see,
So why don't you come join with me!
I know it will be, just you wait and see,
So why don't you come join with me!

Ohh, Mashiach, Mashiach, Mashiach, we really need it now.
Mashiach, Mashiach, Mashiach, the Torah tells us how.

And even though it takes so long,
I still won't stop to sing this song,
So why don't you come sing along!

How lucky is our nation
for all that we have!
How lucky is our Nation
that Hashem is our god!
Oy yoy...

BIG GEDALYA GOOMBER

Chorus:

Ohhhh-
'Ain't gonna work on Saturday,
'Ain't gonna work on Saturday!
Double, double, triple pay,
Won't make me work on Saturday.
'Ain't gonna work on Saturday!
Why?
It's Shabbos Kodesh!

I'm big Gedalya Goomber,
I'm not exactly small. ①
But really not so very big,
Just seventeen feet tall.
I'm rigged for heavy working,
For that I'm very fit.
Six days a week I'm at it,
And the seventh day I quit.
Chorus...

Once I was a fireman,
Chief Goomber that was me. ②
I came across a fire,
As high as I could see.
It was almost Shabbos,
And everyone was scared,
So I huffed & puffed & blew,
Until the fire disappeared.
Chorus...

I once helped raise a building, ③
And was on the 100th floor,
I was carrying a load of bricks,
An easy ton or more.
And here it's late on Friday,
I knew I'd have to stop.
So I yelled, "Watch out below!"
And let the whole thing drop.
Chorus...

I once was an explorer, ④
To Africa I went.
One day some hungry lions,
Came roaring 'round our tent.
My assistant held my rifle,
"Go Goomber, shoot those pests."
But I invited them instead
To be our Shabbos guests!
Chorus...

Oh, once I had a ball team,
Shomrei Shabbos was its name

The score was zero-zero,
In this exciting game.

I was up to bat,
And Shabbos was coming soon,
I hit that ball so very hard,
It landed on the moon!

Chorus...

Once I was a foreman,
On a road construction crew.

A mountain had us stuck,
We couldn't dig it through.
And soon it would be Shabbos,
So, not to say I'm proud.
I took that stubborn mountain,
And I kicked it through a cloud!

Chorus...

I turned to deep sea driving,
And took an awful chance,

On a sunken steamer's deck,
I got caught by the pants.
And trapped beneath the ocean,
I couldn't set me free.

But I went home for Shabbos,
And I dragged the ship with me!

Chorus...

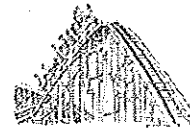

I went to Great Adventure,
With all my little friends.

The line to Lightning Loops,
It seemed would never end.
And it was late on Friday,
To go home wouldn't pay.

So I took the ride home with me,
And returned it on Sunday!

Chorus...

I took a tour to Israel,
On Thursday we would leave.

To get there before Shabbos,
I was guaranteed.

But my taxi got a flat,
Riding over a nail.

As the plane passed overhead,
I caught it by the tail.

Chorus...

I dress my best on Shabbos,
Three meals I feast me fine.

10

I make a royal Kiddush,
On a barrel full of wine.
& when I sing my Shabbos songs,
For a thousand miles they know.

That I'm enjoying Shabbos,
For Hashem has told us so.

Chorus...

I Will Always Be A Jew

All the nations of the world have always tried to do us in,
But the Jews who kept the Torah always knew that they would win.
Oh, they tried to make us fall,
Oh, they tried to make us fear,
But they'll never, never, not forever, make us disappear.

'Cuz when we try to keep the Mitzvot and keep Torah as our guide,
Hashem promised Avraham that He'd be by our side.
Oh, yes I do, yes I do, know Hashem's promise is true,
Yes it's true, yes it's true, I will always be a Jew!
Yes it's true, yes it's true, I will always be a Jew!

The Egyptians forced us to work hard, they made us into slaves,
But we learned from this experience how good Jews do behave.
Oh, we kept our Jewish language and our Jewish clothes the same,
And we'll never, never, not forever, change our Jewish names.

'Cuz when we try...

Oh, the Greeks they said our Torah was old fashioned, out of date,
And they tried hard to convince us that their way of life was great.
But we had strong belief, for Hashem's name we did fight,
The menorah had its flame burning for eight days and nights.

'Cuz when we try...

Oh, bad Haman tried to kill us, do you know the reason why?
It's because we did not listen to our tzaddik Mordechai.
But we learned so very quickly that to make the enemy lose,
We must never, never, not forever stop to be good Jews.

'Cuz when we try...

Nowadays we're in an exile that seems very hard and long,
Since the gentiles seem to be our friends we must stay really strong.
Things may seem very tough, but redemption isn't far.
We must never, never, not forever, forget who we are.

'Cuz when we try...

United We Stand

*When we had the Bais HaMikdash,
So many years ago,
Hashem taught us a lesson,
That all of us should know.*

*Three times a year we would come as one,
On Shalosh Regalim,
Everyone would gather to Yerushalayim.*

Chorus:

*And there united we stand, divided we fall,
When we stick together,
it gives strength to us all.
Ve'ahavta le'rayacha kamocha,
Zeh klal gadol, gadol baTorah.*

*We used to have Nevi'im, such wise and holy men,
To guide us and remind us
Of this message from Hashem.*

*That the Jewish people cannot fall,
When we stand as one.
Teach this to your children,
To your daughters and your sons.*

That... chorus...

*But the message was forgotten,
The words no longer heard.
Our enemies stood laughing,
While the Bais HaMikdash burned.*

*The walls of Yerushalayim,
Came tumbling to the ground.
And all of us were scarred,
To the world all around.*

*Now it's up to us,
Let's join together one more time,
To care and share with everyone,
And show Hashem a sign.*

*That we're listening to the message,
We're united once again.
So bring us back together to Yerushalayim.*

And there... chorus...

V'ahavta l'ray-acha ka-mocha,
Zeh klal gadol baTorah.
Don't walk in front of me,
I may not follow,
Don't walk behind me, I may not lead.
Just walk beside me and be my friend,
And together we will walk
In the ways of Hashem.

The Key

*I believe we were all created with
 A gift deep down inside.
 To change the world or leave it for others,
 The choice is there for all who believe it's true.
 I believe in my search for answers,
 I've finally found the key,
 I believe that Hashem believes in me.*

Always Someone Jewish

Wherever you go, there's always someone Jewish,
 You're never alone when you say you're a Jew.
 So when you're not home
 And you're somewhere kind of newish.
 The odds are, don't look far, 'cuz they're Jewish too.

Oh, Amsterdam, Disneyland, Tel Aviv,
 Though they're miles apart.
 When you light the candles on a Friday night,
 There's caring and sharing in all of our hearts.
 There's caring and sharing in all of our hearts.

Some Jews wear black hats, some Jews wear sombreros,
 Some Jews wear no shoes and live by the sea.
 Some Jews live on rice, some Jews live on potatoes,
 Waffles, falafels, and hamburger buns!

Oh, Amsterdam, Disneyland, Tel Aviv,
 Though they're miles apart.
 When you light the candles on a Friday night,
 There's caring and sharing in all of our hearts.
 There's caring and sharing in all of our hearts.

There Is No Place Like Home

*You have searched so long for the answers and the proof,
And they say you'll find it here, with promises of truth.
But the long white robes, and the changing in the street,
They left you cold, your soul still had to seek.*

*What you're looking for is right here at your door,
Believe me when I tell you, friend, you couldn't ask for more.
What your heart has known is that there is no place like home,
So come on back and you'll never be alone.*

*When the others cared so peacefully, as gentle as a dove,
They stirred something inside of you, they only spoke of love.
But your mind cried out, "What of history, the hatred to my race?"
And you knew then you still had not found your place.*

*Despairing and confused, you traveled far and wide,
'Til you passed through one small country where you started feeling pride.
So you found a place to study what you thought was ancient law,
And you wished you'd heard about it, all before.*

Chorus...

*Now you can stand up straight and tall, 'cause it's where you want to be,
Knowing that it's strong as steel, your faith has set you free.
And as you gaze up at that ancient wall, your hand upon a stone,
You can say you're journeys over, "I am home."*

Chorus

---

Achas Sha'alli Mayas Hashem Osah Avakesh

*Skipping down the road of life, an everyday event.
Not a care in the whole word, I'm happy and content.
Yet, sometimes life's confusing, The road bumps high and low.
I feel I need direction, I don't know where to go.*

*So, lift your chin up on your cloudy day.
Look up to heaven and remember to say,
"Everything I see is a gift that you have given me.
So when times are hard, it's just a test.
It's all from you and for the best.
That's why for all you do, Hashem I say thank You."*

*You were there for me and You're here for me,
And I know You'll always be,
A source of strength, a fire in the night,
My constant guiding light.
So when I feel alone, I know you're sitting on Your throne,
Watching me and guiding me and helping me forever.*

Chorus

*So I thank You for the hardest times- they've helped me to grow.
And I thank You for the challenges- they've helped me to know.
That Hashem who was, He's Hashem who is,
He's Hashem who will always be
There for me when I feel alone, for all eternity.
So I'll never be alone and I know that it is true.
No matter what life brings, I can depend on You.*

Next year we'll all be in Jerusalem.
(Next year we'll all be in the holy city.)

We may have been apart in our own separate ways.
Nothing in common, and never words exchanged.
Or we may have gone through life as the best of all friends,
Cried and laughed together, and swore it never ends.
I may not even know your name, but know we are the same,
Part of one family and together we'll remain.

And I've climbed a thousand heights, 'cuz Nageela brought me there.
And I've touched a thousand souls, 'cuz you taught me how to care.
But with all the thousand words, I just don't know how to say goodbye.
Please tell me why we have to say goodbye.

Nageela, you have held our life in your hands.
We came here confused and you helped us understand.
But now it's the end of that life, we must part.
The memories still seem close and the future so far.
And I don't want to go away, just waiting for that day,
When time whispers move on, but my heart begs to stay.

Chorus

*Nageela, without you,
Where would I be,
A Torah Jew, (2)
You made of me.
Forever this summer,
Precious as pearls,
I'm a proud Nageela girl.*

And together, we'll strive towards the light.
Hand in hand, we'll conquer the night.
With you at my side, forever, serving Hashem,
I will grow towards your closeness, my friend.

And I always know that you'll be there for me.
Your love and care mean so much to me.
As the years pass by, I often cry,
"Thank you Hashem!" (3)
For this gift so dear to me, my friend!

*Nageela, I don't want to say goodbye,
These times we've spent together
I will cherish deep inside.
It's the friendships and the laughter,
It's the special times we've shared,
It's the learning and the achdus
That will bring us back each year.*

Sunshine

Though the world's astray
And has slowly lost its way
With the goal of virtue fading

There's a steady light
That has kept away the night
With the brightness it's creating

Chorus:

Can we bring the world its only sunshine?
Only Torah yields the hope for mankind
Let the beauty of our sun
Find the good in everyone
Through the darkness shines our faith in our time

Can we help to change those lives of sorrow?
Could we show the world a better tomorrow?
Will our deeds illuminate?
Break the clouds of certain fate?
Spreading rays of hope with Torah's sunshine

With the odds defied
We have stood against the tide
As the trials of life enclose us

Is it now His plan
To revel in our task at hand
Knowing why Hashem just chose us

Chorus:

Can we be a light unto the nations?
Carrying out the purpose of creation
Though we number just a few
We can radiate the truth
Through the darkness shines our faith for all time

Can we help to change those lives of sorrow?
Could we show the world a better tomorrow?
Will our deeds illuminate?
Break the clouds of certain fate?
Spreading rays of hope with Torah's sunshine

[Back to first Chorus]

FATHER

LOW: Father on high, please listen to our cry, for the world, your world has seemed unkind

Your sons and daughters, like sheep to the slaughter,

In the darkness of our torture, we call out to you Father!

HIGH: Through the pain, through all the pain, still we won't forget you,

Our faith won't sway because your love still shines through

Through the pain, through all the pain, still we won't forget you,

Please don't forget us father!

Wherever

Wherever we go, whatever we do
Hashem we will always remain true to you
Oh they may scar our bodies
They may break our bones
But they can not diminish our souls

Wherever we go, whatever we do
Hashem we'll keep hoping and praying to you
That you'll be like a father
Who holds his child's hand
And return us to our homeland

Show Me The Way

Show me the way

Here I am stumbling in the black Alone, Daddy someday you know I'll come back

Lead me father, be the one to light my way

Show me the way

Show me the way

CAMP NAGEELA WILL REMAIN

Memories of opportunities, and lessons learned
How far we have come
You've lead us far
Brought us to where we are Kasha alai preidaschem
You gave us wings
It's time to fly
Now we can soar high

CHORUS

There's a place within my heart
Where Camp Nageela will remain
Though it's time to move on
Join together, forever as one
Dreams are shared, goals achieved
You gave us reason to believe
Connected as we wait to say goodbye

ALMA MATER

*Cuz Nageela's what I think of when the day just seems too long,
And you're the one who helps me when I'm forced to be strong.
You're the one who lifts me
Who causes me to smile,
And the laughter that's within me
I know will stay there for a while.
And even when I leave we'll never be apart,
Cuz Nageela's a part of me!*

ELEVATING OUR VOICES

STRONGER EVERY DAY

HASHEM'S WAITING FOR OUR
CALL, HE WON'T TURN US AWAY

HE'LL WIPE AWAY THE TEARS
OF SORROW PAIN AND FEAR
AND EVEN WHEN HIS MASTER PLAN IS HARD TO UNDERSTAND

STILL WE KNOW HE IS ALWAYS NEAR

TO THE HEAVENS ABOVE, OUR PRAYERS WILL ASCEND

IN THE BLINK OF AN EYE ALL
OUR SUFFERING WILL END

ALL OUR TROUBLES CURED

OUR FAITH REASSURED

WE MUST CONTINUE ON THIS PATH UNTIL MOSHIACH COMES

HAPPINESS AND HEALTH RESTORED TO EVERYONE

YOUNG AND OLD WILL SOON
REJOICE AS ONE

AND THEN WE'LL SMILE AGAIN

The City Streets Will Fill

*And the city streets will fill
And once more will children play
As prophecies unravel
And tomorrow starts today
So take comfort in these words
Let the tears dry from your eyes
For one day we'll see our temple
One day these walls will rise
And the city streets will fill*

*When the old remain forever young
And the Torah's words shine as the sun
And the lion lays in peace beside the lamb
He'll bring us home on eagle's wings
As once again levi'im sing
To a nation now rejoined, only stronger*

Chorus

At the Days End

Is anybody happier
Because you passed their way?
Does anyone remember that
You spoke to them today?
Is a single heart rejoicing
Over what you did or said?
Is a man whose hopes were failing
Now with promise look ahead?

Chorus:

Did you make the day or lose it?
Was it well or sorely spent?
Did you leave a trail of kindness
Or a scar of discontent?
As you close your eyes in slumber
Do you think Hashem will say
"You have earned one more tomorrow
By the things you did today?"

Can you say today in passing
As tomorrow slips so fast?
That you helped a single brother
Of the many that you passed?
The day is almost over
And the toiling time is through
Is there anyone to utter now
A kindly word of you?

Chorus
